

Kalliope Agapiou Josephides holds a PhD in Political Science from the Paris I Panthéon - Sorbonne University. She is an Assistant Professor at the University of Cyprus and the recipient of a Jean Monnet Chair (2001).

Prof Kalliope Agapiou Josephides has a keen interest and extensive experience in the field of gender equality and human rights. She is the Chairperson of the European Institute for Gender Equality and former Vice-President of the European Inter University Centre for Human Rights and Democratisation in Venice.

She is a founding member of the Mediterranean Women Mediators Network and academic convenor for the Venice School of Human Rights on Women, Peace and Security.

Her academic work has been published in Brussels (Bruylant), in Paris (Mare & Martin), London (Routledge), Antwerp (Intersentia). She has participated in and led several national and international research projects, has served as academic convenor/speaker at high-level international events and has delivered lectures across Europe and around the world: e.g. France, Germany, Italy, Belgium, Poland, Portugal, Argentina, India, China, Australia...

